

How to apply to run the Junior road safety officer scheme in your school

The Junior road safety officer scheme is a proven way of involving the whole school in road safety activities.

It normally operates with two pupils being elected, from school years 4-6, who become 'champions' within your school for road safety awareness.

If you would like to run the scheme within your Suffolk primary school please contact your area road safety officer who will be able to discuss further:

Southern Education area contact: martin.andrew@et.suffolkcc.gov.uk

Northern Education area contact: ann.battershill@et.suffolkcc.gov.uk

Western Education area contact: cathy.welham@et.suffolkcc.gov.uk